

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL HARNI

Academic Session 2018-19

DPSH/CIR-NOTICE/18-19/19

Date: 26 June 2018

The Camel Art Contest formerly known as AICCC World's largest art contest has arranged a drawing competition for different groups.

The information related to it is as under:

Paper size: A3 / Quarter Imperial (297 mm × 420 mm to 279mm × 420 mm)

| Group A | Group B | Group C |
|--|---|--|
| Kindergarten (belowStd.I) Topic: My family Being with family is always fun and joyful. Whether its home or at picnic. Make your fun filled family time come alive with Camel colours. | Std. I and II Topic: My favourite school School days are always memorable. Whether its Play School / Primary School or Art School. Bring back those memories with vivid colours. | Std. III and IV Topic: My Hobbies Hobbies are a part of you: they are your own idea of creative learning, which gives you immense pleasure and joy. May be a sport or collecting things reading or travel..... how you can make learning easy through your art work |

Materials to be used for Group A & B – Camel Wax Crayons/ Camel Oil Pastels/ Camel Plastic Crayons.

Materials to be used for Group C– Camel Oil Pastels/ Camel Artists' or Students' Water colour cakes and tubes/ Camel Premium Colour pencils.

| Group D | Group E | Group F |
|--|---|---|
| Std. V and VI Topic: Festivals Festivals unite people of diverse types, among them are regional/ commerce/ fairs/ foods/ arts/ folk/ and religious festivals and many more to celebrate which could be depicted in an array of colours. | Std. VII to IX Topic: Train Journey Train journeys are fun. We meet people from all walks of life and spend time with family while looking at beautiful scenes pass by from the train window. The child is free to draw and account of his favourite train journey, and don't forget platforms are also very exciting. | Std. X to XII Topic: Person who I admire From parents to friends, and from sports players to scientists. Be it a Kalpana Chawala or Dr. Abdul Kalam. We all admire someone in our life, and try to follow them. Let's draw the person that you admire and fill with colours. |

Materials to be used for Group D, E & F – Camel Premium or Students' Poster Colours/Camel Students' Water colour tubes or cakes / Premium Colour pencils.

If the participants wish, they can write a few lines to explain their creation.

Submit the entries to the respective class teachers before 20th July 2018.

For detailed brochure, kindly visit the school website www.dpsharni.com

Principal